Footnotes:

- <sup>1/</sup> In addition to regular semi-annual statements, if a state officeholder or candidate makes contributions or independent expenditures in connection with the special state election, the supplemental independent expenditure report (Form 465) and supplemental pre-election report (Forms 460 and 495) may be required. See Chapter 8 of the FPPC Campaign Disclosure Manual for State Candidates (Manual 1, dated May 2005) for detailed information about these requirements.
- <sup>2/</sup> The period covered by any statement begins on the day after the closing date of the last statement filed, or January 1, if no previous statement has been filed.
- <sup>3/</sup> Because July 31 falls on Sunday, this filing deadline is extended to August 1.
- <sup>4/</sup> A controlled committee of a candidate may not make an independent expenditure to support or oppose another candidate.
- <sup>5/</sup> The term “late contribution” includes contributions totaling $1,000 or more made to or received by a state or county central committee during the 16-day period prior to any state election.

Important Notes:

- Except for deadlines that fall on a Saturday, Sunday, or an official state holiday, there is no provision in the law for extending a filing deadline. Deadlines for late contribution and late independent expenditure reports may not be extended. Late statements are subject to a $10 per day late fine.
- All statements are public documents.
- State candidates and committees that contribute to state candidates are subject to contribution limits. Some committees that feature state candidates in advertisements, are also subject to contribution limits. Contact the FPPC for specific information.
